5th Biennial Conference of South Asian Association of Physiologists (SAAP)
in conjunction with
2nd Annual Conference of Physiological Society of Nepal (PSN)

First Announcement

Redefining the Health in Nature

Venue: Nepalese Army Institute of Health Sciences, Kathmandu, Nepal

It is our pleasure to invite you to participate in the 5th Biennial Conference of South Asian Association of Physiologists (SAAP) being organized in conjunction with 2nd Annual Conference of Physiological Society of Nepal (PSN) scheduled for Nov. 10-12, 2016 at NAIHS, Kathmandu, Nepal.

“Redefining the Health in Nature” is specifically chosen as conference theme so as to integrate the whole concept of health with advances in physiological sciences leading to redefining the health in nature. Scientific program will include all the related aspects starting from concepts to molecules to whole organism touching the advancements occurred in recent years. Plenary and symposia lectures will be delivered by renowned national and international experts. The program will also include oral and poster sessions. Pre-conference workshop on Teaching Physiology and other contemporary topics will also be organized.

Kathmandu, the capital of Nepal known as city of temples is blessed with full of diverse natural scenes. The workshops venue will be Dharan - a beautiful small city, situated at the foothills of Himalayas is located an hour flight from Kathmandu.

We warmly welcome you all to participate in the conference, enjoy and experience the natural beauty of Nepal.
